MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRPERSON

On behalf of the Executive Committee and distinguished members of the Coalition of NGOs in Water and Sanitation (CONIWAS), I warmly welcome you to the 34th MOLE WASH Conference Series held for the first time in the Upper West Region at the Royal Cozy Hotel “Jirapa Dubai”. This year’s conference is special to CONIWAS as we celebrate 20 years of active CSO partnership and contribution to the WASH sector in Ghana and being the long-standing CSO body advancing WASH issues nationally and internationally.

This year’s MOLE 34 WASH conference is under the theme: Building Inclusive and Resilient Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene

(WASH) Systems to Reach the Unserved. The conference theme has been carefully chosen to mark such a milestone. Over the last 33 years, CONIWAS members have made tremendous contributions to WASH delivery, innovation, research, equity and inclusion, monitoring, evaluation, and learning resulting in safe WASH delivery at the local levels.

At this conference, let us celebrate what we as a professional community have achieved. This conference will be one for us to share our thoughts and exchange ideas on how to chart our journey towards building inclusive and resilient WASH systems to reach the unserved.. We have an exciting program at this conference that will allow members to reflect upon and celebrate our past accomplishments, renew partnerships, extend our networks, and jointly explore current and future research directions. I wish you a productive, fun-filled experience and networking session at this conference.

ABOUT THE MOLE CONFERENCE

The Mole Conference Series has witnessed consistent growth of interest and importance since its inception in 1989 among civil society, policy makers, local government and development partners alike. The Mole Series, as it is known today, has evolved from what was primarily an NGO forum into perhaps the most important multi-stakeholder platform within the WASH Sector in Ghana. It is also one of the longest running and consistent annual conferences in the country. The Conference was named after Mole Game Reserve, near Damango where the maiden conference was held. Over the years, the conference has attracted government actors, donors and other stakeholders (including local authorities) on an annual basis to deliberate on critical issues affecting the sector. This year marks the 34th of the Mole Conference Series.

THEMATIC SCOPE

MOLE XXXIV Conference will focus on building inclusive and resilient WASH systems to reach the unserved. This is an important step as Ghana accelerates efforts to achieve the 2030 SDG6 WASH targets. The MOLE XXXIV Conference is intended to create a common space where policymakers, practitioners and researchers can gather to give account on the state of Ghana's WASH delivery systems – through the review of available evidence, interrogating the science and methods, exploring the latest learnings and existing experiences, towards bridging the WASH service delivery gaps. The conference will also discuss how the implementation of resilient WASH systems will address access and equity, and how current service delivery models will impact on Ghana's pace towards achieving WASH for all.

OBJECTIVES

The overall objective of the conference is to review equity and inclusive approaches toward building resilient WASH services in the country. The focus of discussions will include systems, approaches, and models of resilient WASH service delivery. The specific objectives include the following:

1. Reflect on approaches to building resilient WASH systems to ensure sustainable service delivery.
2. Explore inclusive approaches to service delivery that address equity concerns and promote sustainable WASH service delivery for everyone everywhere.
3. Discuss options for delivering sustainable WASH to unserved and underserved communities in Ghana.

4. Highlight cutting-edge partnerships with education, health, economic and related sectors in delivering cost-effective, affordable, and inclusive WASH services.
 5. Review existing innovative financing approaches that are inclusive and self-sustaining.
 6. Explore appropriate technology and innovations for delivering WASH infrastructure and services in an equitable and inclusive manner
 7. Develop practical and actionable recommendations for accelerating access to sustainable WASH services.

CONTENT AND SUB-THEMES

The conference will set the agenda and commence a national dialogue aimed at holding Government and other duty-bearers to account on their commitments to WASH, and to change the narrative regarding the approach to the delivery of sustainable WASH services in Ghana.

The conference is expected to adopt an agreed set of recommendations for monitoring Ghana's commitments to provide WASH services to everyone everywhere and keeping Government and stakeholders on track to accelerate sustainable WASH services delivery. The conference will retain its normal focus of knowledge sharing and advocacy and will devote about 60% of the period to sharing lessons on trends. Within a period of four days, Conference will look at four sub-themes as follows:

Sub-theme 1: WASH System Strengthening:

Sub-theme 2: Innovative Service Delivery Approaches.

Sub-theme 3: Equity and Inclusion in WASH Service Delivery

Sub-theme 4: Policies and Regulations in Service Delivery

Conference Communiqué: A key output of the conference will be a presentation of the Conference Communiqué which will capture key decisions from conference proceedings and the commitments of the coalition and other stakeholders.
